Article 1 Yuanpei University (hereinafter referred to as “the university”) has set up the “Yuanpei University Foreign Student Scholarship Guidelines” (hereinafter referred to as “the guidelines”) to promote studies of foreign students at Yuanpei University.

Article 2 Tuition and scholarship allowance limit: undergraduate students of 4-year vocational and technical colleges: limited to four years; undergraduate students of 2-year vocational and technical colleges: limited to two years; students of master programs: limited to two years.

Article 3 Eligibility:

1. Foreign students enrolled in the university with official enrollment (excluding overseas students, exchange students, and students taking up electives).
2. Undergraduate Students: Those without a failing grade in any of the subjects allotted for every semester, with a total average of no less than 80, with the conduct grade no less than 85, and without any minor demerits in the semester.

Graduate Students: Those without a failing grade in any of the subjects allotted for every semester, with a total average of no less than 85, with the conduct grade no less than 85, and without any minor demerits in the semester.

3. Those whose scholarship eligibility has not been cancelled; dropouts that resume studies should re-apply.

Article 4 The guidelines are intended for the identification of foreign student eligibility. Scholarship reviews and awarded amounts are undertaken by the “Foreign Student Scholarship Review Committee” (reviews are not required for new enrollees). The committee members consist of Dean of Office of Academic Affairs, Dean of Office of Student Affairs, Dean of Office of International Affairs, and Department Deans. The Dean of Office of International Affairs serves as the convener.

Article 5 Review Process and Scholarship Awarding Method:

1. New foreign students enrolled in the first semester of the first academic year: Foreign students applying for enrollment in the university will be awarded a scholarship in the amount of up to NTD20,000. Awarded students must enroll in the academic year to be eligible for the scholarship granted.
2. Foreign students enrolled in the second semester of the first academic year: In accordance with “Foreign Student Scholarship Review Committee” reviews, one outstanding student from every academic year should be selected every semester to receive the tuition-free scholarship for the semester. The remaining students who have passed the reviews will be awarded NTD20,000.
3. In response to foreign student recruitment needs, foreign students will be encouraged to enroll in the university through sign-off. Those who have already claimed the scholarship shall not be eligible to the scholarship stipulated in Subparagraph 1, Article 5.

Article 6 Those awarded the scholarship in the guidelines must participate in international exchange activities held by the university twice (or more) every semester.

Article 7 The scholarship applications are accepted once every semester, from September 1st to September 30th for the first semester and for March 1st to March 31st for the second semester. Those applications received after the deadlines will not be considered.

Article 8 Foreign students who wish to apply for the scholarship allotted beginning the second semester of the first academic year should submit the following documents to the Section of Extracurricular Activity Guidance of the university for application filing.

1. Application Form (1 copy)
2. Transcript of records for past years (1 copy)
3. Recommendation letter (1 copy)

Article 9 Newly-enrolled eligible students should submit the scholarship application form and a photocopy of the payment invoice; already-enrolled eligible students should submit a photocopy of their student I.D. and transcripts of records for the previous semester to the Section of Extracurricular Activity Guidance, Office of Academic Affairs for application filing. The Section of Extracurricular Activity Guidance shall compile the application documents for review by the “Foreign Student Scholarship Review Committee” and approval by the university president. After the review and approval, the Section of Extracurricular Activity Guidance announces the results and notifies the applicant.

Article 10 Those who have claimed the scholarship but whose application documents have been proven forged or untrue will be disqualified. The scholarship in full received will be confiscated.

Article 11 Those who have received scholarships from the Ministry of Education and other government agencies or free-tuition scholarships from other units are not eligible to apply for the scholarship of the university.

Article 12 The scholarship funds come from “Foreign Student Scholarships of Universities and Colleges and Chinese Language Institution Subsidiaries Subsidized by the Ministry of Education” funds. Amounts in deficit shall be paid through the university’s tuition subsidy budget.

Article 13 The guidelines shall be promulgated and implemented after passing “Foreign Student Scholarship Review Committee” reviews and upon approval of the university president. Amendments to the guidelines shall follow the same procedures.
